

CALIFORNIA STATE THREAT ASSESSMENT CENTER

24-HOUR REPORT

5 APRIL 2022

(U) CALIFORNIA

(U) Oakland – Man Brought Explosive to Oakland Courthouse, Sheriff's Say

(U) The Alameda County Sheriff's Office went to the Wiley W. Manuel Courthouse in Oakland yesterday after a man brought an explosive there, the office stated. The explosive was "very small" and "homemade," a statement said. The man who brought it "claims device was previously planted on his car by someone." "Scene is safe and no further threats."

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, KRON4

(U) Sacramento – Second Arrest Made in Sacramento Mass Shooting

(U) A second person was arrested in connection with the deadly mass shooting early Sunday morning that took the lives of six people and injured a dozen others, according to the Sacramento Police Department. The second suspect was identified as 27-year-old Smiley Martin, who was taken into custody today on charges that include possession of a firearm by a prohibited person and possession of a machine gun. Smiley Martin is the brother of the first suspect arrested, 26-year-old Dandrae Martin, police said. Smiley Martin sustained serious injuries from the shooting and is currently in a nearby hospital for treatment. He will be booked into the Sacramento County Main Jail once he is released from the hospital.

SOURCE: 5 April 2022, KCRA 3 Sacramento

(U) San Francisco – Two Killed, Two Hurt in Playground Shooting

(U) Police are investigating a shooting that left two dead and two injured near the Alice Chalmers Playground in San Francisco. The incident happened on the 600 block of Brunswick Avenue near the Alice Chalmers Playground. Police say they located four adult male victims with gunshot wounds. They say two of the victims who suffered life-threatening injuries were pronounced deceased at the hospital. Police say the suspect fled the scene in a vehicle. There is no suspect description at this time and nor any arrest made.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, ABC7

(U) NATIONAL

(U) District of Columbia – Road Rage Shootings See 'Worst Year on Record' in 2021

(U) Washington – More than 500 people in the US were killed or wounded in road-rage shootings in 2021, the "worst year on record" for gun violence on streets and highways, according to analysis released by Everytown for Gun Safety. Last year, nearly 400 people were wounded and 130 more were fatally shot during encounters with aggressive drivers, compared to 225 injured and 68 killed in 2019. In an average month in 2021, 44 people were shot in road-rage incidents, which was double the pre-pandemic average, according to Everytown.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, NBC News

(U) District of Columbia – Former Police Officer Faces Jury Trial on Capitol Riot Charges

(U) Washington – Over a year ago, two off-duty police officers from a small town in Virginia were charged with storming the US Capitol together. One of them is heading to trial and faced a courtroom full of potential jurors, the other could be a key prosecution witness. The federal trial of former Rocky Mount police officer Thomas Robertson will be the third among hundreds of people charged in the 6 January 2021, attack on the Capitol. Jury selection in Robertson's trial started in Washington, DC. One of his former colleagues, Jacob Fracker, was scheduled to join him on trial. Instead, Fracker reached a plea deal and agreed to cooperate with federal authorities.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, AP News

(U) Florida – Gas Theft Ring Stole at Least $60K to Resell, Deputies Say

(U) Tampa – A local gas-theft ring turned vacant Tampa lots into impromptu gas stations for selling stolen fuel, Hillsborough Sheriff Chad Chronister said. More than $60,000 in fuel was illegally pumped from two Circle K stations in Apollo Beach and Ruskin on 25 February, then transported to vacant lots near Tampa International Airport and the Orient Road Jail to be sold at a discount. Chronister says the operation came to a close last week, however, when six men involved were arrested on racketeering and grand theft charges.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, Tampa Bay Times

(U) INTERNATIONAL

(U) Congo – More Than a Dozen Killed in Attack

(U) Beni – Suspected rebels attacked a village in eastern Congo with machetes and guns, killing at least a dozen civilians, Congo's army said. Fighters believed to be part of the Allied Democratic Forces rebel group staged the attack in Masambo, about 50 kilometers away from the city of Beni, army spokesman Capt. Anthony Mwalushayi said. The attack by suspected ADF rebels based in Uganda, comes a few days after the start of the trials of about a dozen rebels who were captured in combat by Congo's army and were brought to Beni.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, US News

(U) Ecuador – Prison Riot Leaves 20 Dead, Five Seriously Injured

(U) Quito – A clash between prison gangs armed with guns and knives left 20 people dead, Ecuadorian officials said, and they announced that they had fully regained control of the penitentiary. Interior Minister Patricio Carrillo said the clash happened in Turi, about 310 kilometers south of the capital. Speaking to Radio Democracy, Carrillo linked the riot to a "criminal economy" with links to politics, but he did not expand on that. Gen. Carlos Cabrera, the commander of police, told a news conference that authorities were making a block-by-block search of the prison.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, ABC News

(U) Germany – Right-Wing Extremist Arrested Over Fatal 1991 Attack

(U) Berlin – German prosecutors arrested a right-wing extremist over an arson attack on a home for asylum-seekers more than 30 years ago in which a Ghanaian man was killed. Federal prosecutors said the suspect, a German citizen identified only as Peter S. is accused of murder, attempted murder and arson leading to death. They said that, on the evening of 18 September 1991, the suspect and far-right acquaintances discussed racist attacks in the eastern town of Hoyerswerda and agreed that they would approve of similar attacks in their own town, Saarlouis in western Germany.

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, AP News

(U) India – Soldier Killed, Four Workers Injured in Kashmir Attacks

(U) Srinagar – A paramilitary soldier was killed and another wounded in a rebel attack in Indian-controlled Kashmir's main city, while four laborers were injured in two separate attacks elsewhere in the disputed region, police said. Two militants on a motorbike opened fire at paramilitary soldiers patrolling in the main business center of Srinagar yesterday, police said. The injured soldiers were taken to a hospital, where one was declared dead. Attackers also fired at two Indian workers in southern Pulwama district, leaving them injured, police said. Hours earlier, two laborers were injured late Sunday in a gunfire attack in Pulwama.

UNCLASSIFIED

SOURCE: 4 April 2022, The Washington Post

(U) PREPARED BY THE CALIFORNIA STATE THREAT ASSESSMENT CENTER.

(U) FOR QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS, PLEASE EMAIL STAC@CALOES.CA.GOV, OR CALL 916-636-2900.